

EXHIBIT L

1 can -- maybe he can look at it and --

2 THE WITNESS: That would be two pages.

3 JUDGE CASEY: Okay. I have nothing further.

4 Redirect?

5 MR. MC CARTHY: Yeah, I have a couple things.

6 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

7 BY

8 MR. MC CARTHY:

9 Q. Jeff, there was a lot of questions to you
10 about payments made by Mr. Malry; isn't that right?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. And were there -- looking at Respondent's
13 Exhibit No. 3, were there any examples of where
14 Mr. Malry underpaid the current bill in the periods
15 that since when he's been making the payments?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Do you know what -- can you just list off
18 the dates and the payments -- the bill amounts and
19 payments in those cases and the row number, if you
20 can?

21 A. Row 14, there's a payment -- what's that
22 for -- or excuse me. Yeah, 14, payment of $815.

1 MS. TRIPLETT: Excuse me. Can you tell me what
2 date that was, please?

3 THE WITNESS: The date we received it was
4 December 31, 2001. That bill at that time was 5 $4272.04.

6 MS. TRIPLETT: 42 --

7 THE WITNESS: $4272.04. We received a payment
8 of $815.

9 MS. TRIPLETT: And you received $815. And what
10 was the amount of that --

11 MR. MC CARTHY: Well, hold on. I'm asking the 12 questions.

13 MS. TRIPLETT: I understand. I just want to be
14 clear so -- okay. I'll just wait until you finish.

15 THE WITNESS: The net cost of that billing
16 period was 4272.04. The balance actually due was 17 in the amount of $69,000 due at that time after the 18 payment.

19 BY MR. MC CARTHY:

20 Q. Are there any others?

21 A. Payment of $3500 received on April 12th of 22 2002. The net bill at that time was $2839. The
